IDENTIFICATION SYSTEM USED TO SAVE 25,000 DOGS

To save the lives of more than 25,000 dogs, who are "put to sleep" in the Los Angeles pounds and shelters each year, a method of permanently identifying dogs by tattooing was recently inaugurated at nearby kennels, according to James Schermerhorn, Jr., executive vice president of the National Dog Record Bureau, sponsors of the "Identacode" system.

At the opening of the Torrance "Identacode" center last Saturday seven dogs received the benefits of the system, Schermerhorn said.

Avalon Village To Get Park

The purchase of seven acres of land for $12,500 at Avalon and Sepulveda boulevards, in Avalon Village, for a park site, was approved by the Board of Supervisors at its Tuesday meeting.

Chairman Raymond V. Darby stated that the Avalon Village Co., previous owners of the land, had agreed to contribute another six acres, and that the total area was to be frozen as a park site for the next 25 years.

Further conditions call for inclusion of funds in the 1948-49 budget for park development, Darby said.
